FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Capital Area United Way's Delores Hurst Selected for United Way Worldwide Fellowship Program

Baton Rouge, La. (May 23, 2022) – Capital Area United Way's Delores Hurst, Director of Income Stability, has been selected to participate in United Way Worldwide's Fellowship Program. This fellowship program is an accelerated leadership course designed for high potential employees of United Way with proven performance and demonstrated leadership capacity.

"Capital Area United Way is proud that Delores was chosen to be a member of this year's Fellowship Program," said George Bell, President and CEO of Capital Area United Way. "We are pleased that Delores is among the best and brightest of United Way. Leaders like Delores will engage with the next generation of donors and carry our mission into the 21st century."

Selection for the Fellowship Program is based on an individual's performance, mastery of skills and core competencies, and leadership potential. Applicants are selected from nearly 13,000 employees serving in local United Ways worldwide throughout all departments. Admission to the program is highly selective, and participation is limited to 60 applicants each year.

"People first leadership means building a diverse pipeline of leaders for the global United Way Network," said Alex Fike, Senior Director of People & Culture at United Way Worldwide. "Identifying and supporting high-performing and high-potential team members and providing them with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills and capacity enables United Way to drive a culture of performance and mission advancement to serve every person in every community better."

United Way Worldwide's 2022 Fellowship Program runs from May 2022 to August 2022. For more information, please visit: <https://www.unitedway.org/careers/working-at-united-way>.
